Dear Mr. Meredith:

I wish you encouragement, and want to let you know others such as myself know the misery with which you are living at this moment.

For ten years I lived in the south. Although I am not a negro my feelings are very deeply involved in their cause. The south needs help from more people such as you to make it a decent place to live. May I thank you as a member of the human race, while still hoping it is humanly possible for you to continue.

I am a former student of the Fine Arts at the University of Southern California and now a painter. My hope is also to give something worth while to society.

Sincerely,
Miss Jane Humble
